On the second floor, we have a exclusive apartment built the top of the medieval tower. The roof structure, untouched, sends you back to the 14th century, at the time of the Golden Traces battle!

In total, there is 81 m2 living space.

The finish and luxurious furnishings are pronounced (whirlpool bath, granite sink, granite work top, solid oak wood kitchen) and various antique elements such as an ancient front, an original 16th century fire-place and some very beautiful spacers were used that create a very particular atmosphere. The bathrooms are fully furnished and the kitchen is a real piece of jewellery. Everything is included in the price.

This apartment has with it the opportunity to purchase a separate studio you can spare for family or friends as a luxury accommodation with total privacy.

The price is € 145000. - Plus fees and VAT without the studio.

€ 193,000 with the studio fully renovated.
